7. MEMBERSHIP

7.1 The Charity must maintain a register of Members.

7.2 Any person who is appointed as a Trustee will automatically, by virtue of that appointment, become a Member of the Charity. No person other than a Trustee may be admitted as a Member of the Charity.

7.3 Membership is terminated if the Member concerned:

7.3.1 ceases to be a Trustee;

7.3.2 gives written notice of resignation to the Charity;

7.3.3 dies, or in the case of an organisation ceases to exist; or

7.3.4 is removed from Membership by resolution of the Trustees on the ground that in their reasonable opinion the Member’s continued Membership is harmful to the Charity. The Trustees may only pass such a resolution after notifying the Member in writing and considering the matter in the light of any written representations which the Member concerned puts forward within 14 clear days after receiving notice.

7.4 Membership of the Charity is not transferable.

7.5 Members (minimum 25%) will be Independent Non-Executive Directors (INED) who are free from any close connection to the Charity and if, from the perspective of an objective outsider, they would be viewed as independent. Examples of a ‘close connection’ include being actively involved (not including involvement on the Board or any Working Groups) or employed by the Charity for the last four years or having close family ties with the Charity’s directors or senior employees. A person may still be deemed to be independent even if they are a member of the organisation.¹

8. GENERAL MEETINGS

8.1 A meeting may be called at any time by the Trustees and must be called within 28 clear days of a written request from at least one third of the Members. Meetings are called on at least 14 clear days’ written notice specifying the business to be discussed or shorter notice if it is so agreed by at least 90% of the members having a right to attend and vote at that meeting. Any such majority must together represent at least 90% of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the members.

8.2 Members are entitled to attend meetings either personally, (in the case of a Member organisation) by an authorised representative, by proxy or by suitable means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants. Proxy forms must be delivered to the Secretary at least 24 hours before the meeting.

8.3 There is a quorum at a meeting if the number of Members present in person or by proxy is at least two or one third of the Members if greater. However, if, on incorporation, the Charity has only one member, that member in person or by proxy will be a quorum.

8.4 The Chairman or (if the Chairman is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Member elected by those present presides at a meeting.

8.5 Except where otherwise provided by the Articles or the Companies Acts, every issue is decided by a majority of the votes cast.

8.6 Every Member present in person or through an authorised representative or by proxy has one vote on each issue.

8.7 A written resolution signed by a majority of those entitled to vote at a meeting (or, where the Companies Acts require, a greater majority) is as valid as a resolution actually passed at that meeting. For this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature required to reach a relevant majority.

8.8 The Charity shall not be required to hold an AGM in any year.

9. THE TRUSTEES

9.1 The Trustees as Charity Trustees have control of the Charity and its property and funds.

9.2 The Trustees when complete consist of at least three and not more than twelve individuals, all of whom must be Members. If the number of Trustees shall fall below three, the remaining Trustees may act to appoint further Trustees as required. On incorporation, if and for so long as there shall be a sole Trustee, that trustee will be able to exercise all the Trustees’ powers set out in these Articles and any provision regarding the number of Trustees which constitutes a quorum is modified accordingly.
9.3 The subscribers to the Memorandum are the first Trustees. Subsequent Trustees are to be appointed by the Trustees for terms of four years.

9.4 A Trustee who has served for two consecutive terms of four years may not be reappointed for a third consecutive term but may be reappointed after an interval of at least four years.

9.5 Every Trustee (other than the subscribers to the Memorandum) after appointment must sign a declaration of willingness to act as a Charity Trustee of the Charity before he or she may vote at any meeting of the Trustees.

9.6 A Trustee's term of office automatically terminates if he or she:

9.6.1 ceases to be a Member in accordance with articles 7.3.2 to 7.3.4;

9.6.2 is disqualified under the Charities Acts from acting as a Charity Trustee or is prohibited by law from being a director of a company;

9.6.3 is, in the opinion of the other Trustees, at any time incapable, whether mentally or physically, of managing his or her own affairs;

9.6.4 is absent from three consecutive meeting of the Trustees and is asked by a majority of the other Trustees to resign;

9.6.5 ceases to be a Member (but such a person may be reinstated by resolution passed by all the other Trustees on resuming Membership of the Charity);

9.6.6 resigns by written notice to the Trustees (but only if at least two Trustees will remain in office); or

9.6.7 is removed by resolution of the Members present and voting at a general meeting (but only if at least two Trustees will remain in office) after the meeting has invited the views of the Trustee concerned and considered the matter in the light of any such views; or

9.6.8 is removed or resigns in accordance with article 14 below;

9.6.9 has reached the end of two consecutive terms of four years served after the date of adoption of these Articles in accordance with article 9.4 (except where the operation of this article would leave the Charity with fewer than three Trustees, in which case the relevant Trustees may remain in post for the purposes of appointing replacement Trustees or calling a general meeting only).

9.7 A technical defect in the appointment of a Trustee of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

10. TRUSTEES' PROCEEDINGS

10.1 The Trustees must hold at least three meetings each year.

10.2 A quorum at a meeting of the Trustees is two or one third of the Trustees if greater, save where Article 9.2 applies and the Charity has only one Trustee (on incorporation only), that trustee shall be a quorum.

10.3 A meeting of the Trustees may be held either in person or by suitable means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants.

10.4 The Chairman or (if the Chairman is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee chosen by the Trustees present presides at each meeting.

10.5 Every issue may be determined by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting, but a written resolution signed by a majority of the Trustees is as valid as a resolution passed at a meeting. For this purpose the resolution may be contained in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature.

10.6 Except for the Chairman of the meeting, who has a casting vote, every Trustee has one vote on each issue.

10.7 A procedural defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

11. TRUSTEES' POWERS

The Trustees have the following powers in the administration of the Charity:

11.1 to appoint (and remove) any person, who may, or may not, be a Member and a Trustee, to act as Secretary in accordance with the Companies Acts;

11.2 to appoint a Chairman, Treasurer and other honorary officers from among their number;

11.3 to delegate any of their functions to committees consisting of two or more individuals appointed by them. At least one member of every committee must be a Trustee and all proceedings of committees must be reported regularly to the Trustees;

11.4 to make standing orders consistent with the Articles and the Companies Acts to govern proceedings at general meetings and to prescribe a form of proxy;

11.5 to make rules consistent with the Articles and the Companies Acts to govern their proceedings and proceedings of committees;
11.6 to make regulations consistent with the Articles and the Companies Acts to govern the administration of the Charity and the use of its seal (if any);

11.7 to establish procedures to assist the resolution of disputes or differences within the Charity;

11.8 to exercise any powers of the Charity which are not reserved to a meeting of the Members.

12. BENEFITS TO MEMBERS AND TRUSTEES

12.1 The property and funds of the Charity must be used only for promoting the Objects and do not belong to the Members, but Members may:

12.1.1 be paid interest at a reasonable rate on money lent to the Charity;

12.1.2 be paid a reasonable rent or hiring fee for property or equipment let or hired to the Charity; and 12.1.3 if they are also beneficiaries, receive charitable benefits in that capacity.

(contractual payments);

12.2.2 reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including hotel and travel costs) actually incurred in the administration of the Company;

12.2.3 an indemnity in respect of any liabilities properly incurred in running the Company (including the costs of a successful defence to criminal proceedings);

12.2.4 payment to any company in which a Trustee has no more than a 1 per cent shareholding; and 12.2.5 in exceptional cases, other payments or benefits (but only with the written approval of the Commission in advance).

12.3 A Trustee may not be an employee of the Charity, but a Trustee or a Connected Person may enter into a contract with the Charity to supply good or services in return for a payment or other Material Benefit if:
12.3.1 the goods or services are actually required by the Charity;

12.3.2 the nature and level of the benefit is no more than reasonable in relation to the value of the goods or services and is set at a meeting of the Trustees in accordance with the procedure in article 12.5; and

12.3.3 no more than one half of the Trustees are interested in such a contract in any financial year.

12.4 Whenever a Trustee has a personal interest in a matter falling within articles 12.1, 12.2 or 12.3 which is to be discussed at a meeting of the Trustees or a committee, he or she must comply with the procedure in article 12.5.

12.5 Where this article applies, a Trustee must:

12.5.1 declare an interest before the meeting or at the meeting before discussion begins on the matter;

12.5.2 be absent from the meeting for that item unless expressly invited to remain in order to provide information;

12.5.3 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting; and

12.5.4 have no vote on the matter and be absent during the vote if so requested by the other Trustees.

12.6 This article may not be amended without the written consent of the Commission in advance.

13. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

13.2 Subject to article 11, if a Conflict of Interest matter is proposed to the Trustees, the Unconflicted Trustees may agree to:
