

Online safety guidelines for our coaches, staff and volunteers

1 We focus on fairness and respect and celebrating team achievements.

2 All communications are age appropriate and mindful of employees and young coaches that are under 18.

3 We will not post any content that could be considered harmful or inappropriate, including personal information or content that could be considered bullying, discriminatory, illegal or offensive.

4 Staff will not contact any young person through their own personal social accounts.

5 We monitor team accounts and address any inappropriate content promptly.

6 Our messages and posts will maintain a positive and professional online presence.

7 Coaches, staff and volunteers will follow the club's policies and codes of conduct on safeguarding, social media use, online safety and communication.
