

The YSF Podcast: Episode nine

Primary PE – Closing the gender sports gap in schools

We chat with Darton Primary School in Barnsley about how they have spent the last few years challenging stereotypes through sport and activity in their school. We're joined by Totally Runable, who have worked alongside them, on a project which contributed to winning the Innovation category at the South Yorkshire Primary PE and School Sport Premium Awards.

Introduction

3:55 – Getting started

19:09 – Giving staff the confidence

24:34 – Putting it into practice with pupils, staff and parents
